

Table of Contents

Part A: Introduction	5
Checking employment references is an essential part of the hiring process	5
Part B: Legal requirements	6
Are you required by law to conduct a reference check or provide a reference?	6
Employee or volunteer working with vulnerable groups	6
Human rights	7
Privacy	10
Common law – negligent hiring	11
Defamation and other claims	12
When should an employer conduct a background check?	13
What types of background check can be conducted?	13
Former employment, education and character checks	13
Professional license verification and certifications	14
Conducting criminal record checks.....	14
RCMP guidelines	15
Vulnerable group sector checks	16
Police record check versus criminal record check	17
How should employers handle criminal or police record checks?	18
Conducting credit checks	18
Driver’s abstract	20
Driver’s license	20
How are employees bonded?	21
Part C: Best practices	22
Introduction	22
Have a clearly understood policy	22
Conditional offer of employment	24
Who should carry out reference checks?	24

What should be asked during a reference check?.....	24
Keeping track of records	24
Obtain authorization for reference checking	25
Outsourcing background checks	25
Using social media as a screening tool	26
Recommendations.....	27
Part D: Resources.....	30
How can First Reference help?	30
Sources	31
Legislation and regulations	31
Online	32
Part E: Appendices	33
Appendix A: Sample employment reference check policy	34
Appendix B: Sample third party reference check policy.....	38
Appendix C: Sample criminal reference check policy.....	40
Appendix D: Sample credit check reference policy	42
Appendix E: Sample release form for driver’s abstract.....	45
Appendix F: Sample applicant consent/reference release form.....	47
Appendix G: Sample credit report consent form	48
Appendix H: Sample criminal record check consent form	49
Appendix I: Sample reference checking control form	51
Appendix J: Sample reference checklist	56
Appendix K: Sample reference check questions	58
Appendix L: Sample employment reference check letter	60
Appendix M: RCMP consent for disclosure of criminal record information GRC 3584e (2006-03)	63